

This Month's Program

Field Day is almost upon us! I hope you can join us July 23 and 24 at group camp site 3 to help operate one of our Field Day stations or come Friday afternoon to help us hang antennas! We will be operating class 2A again this year with two stations and two antennas. We plan to have a training session on how to set up a wireless mesh network to support logging, and to pass some message traffic to improve our score, as well as other activities. Our camp site is very nice and some of us plan to camp out Friday and Saturday nights. There is plenty of room for tents, so I hope you can join us. I will provide updates via e-mail, so please stay tuned, and I hope to see you there during Field Day!

Thanks, Dave. AC4A

South Africa now has a 100 kHz band at 5 MHz. South Africa's telecommunications regulator Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (ICASA) has included a shared 100 kHz wide band at 5 MHz (60 meters) of 5,350 to 5,450 kHz in its just-published National Radio Frequency Plan 2018, at a maximum power of 15 W EIRP. The band is being made available on a non-interference basis. In addition, ICASA allocated a single channel at 5,290 kHz for the 5 MHz propagation research project. South African Radio League (SARL) President Nico van Rensburg, ZS6QL, said SARL still hopes for a higher power level on the new 60-meter band. "Continue to use 5,290 kHz for WSPR and await the announcement of the 60-meter band plan before operating on the new allocation," he advised SARL members. -- Thanks to SARL and to Paul Gaskell, G4MWO, editor of The 5 MHz Newsletter

Wow, it's been warm. Actually, warm might be an understatement, but then again, it is late June in North Carolina! It looks like it might ease off a little for Field Day, but regardless, don't let the heat or weather deter you from joining us at Hagan Stone Park this weekend.

I know there are a lot of newly-minted ticket holders about these days, so if that's you, this is a perfect time for you to come and discover some of the different facets of amateur radio. Even though Field Day is primarily an HF event, there will be a lot of different technologies on hand for you to experience and learn. And that's the beauty of Field Day too - there are many people around who have been enjoying ham radio for years and would love to pass along some of their knowledge to you. Those of us who are relatively experienced can learn new things too. There's a place for everyone!

Field Day is a big deal, but it isn't the only thing going on. There are a number of contests that happen all through the summertime, and you can find the full listing at www.contestcalendar.com. Even though GARA's Field Day event is officially sanctioned by the club, there's no reason not to get together with other hams to participate in other contests even if you never submit a log. Do a dry run. Choose a contest and invite people over to have some fun and operate! You never know- once the bug bites, you might end up submitting a log even though you didn't plan on it and be hooked. I would love to see experienced members in our club reach out to newer (or older!) hams and have spontaneous operating parties throughout the year.

Speaking of new people: I would also like to ask your assistance with something. Obviously, the point of an association is to provide a opportunity for people with a common interest to get to know each other and help each other to achieve a common goal. Unfortunately, that's really challenging if only a few people ever participate, or if people fall off the roll since they aren't involved much. So let me request these two things of you: first, if you know of someone who used to be involved but isn't, could you take a moment to make a call or send an e-mail to see how he or she is and if you can help rekindle their interest? It might not take much, but it might just be the touch he needs. Second, if you are aware of a new ham who hasn't gotten involved much yet, would you take a second and invite her to Field Day or to our monthly club meetings? GARA is open and welcoming, and my personal experience is that it was a huge help for me to get involved early on in my ham life and expanded my horizons considerably. I think we can give new people a big leg-up in this hobby if we just take one extra minute to be intentional about inviting them to join us.

Thanks for all the support you all give, and I'm really, really looking forward to seeing you at Field Day this weekend.

Very best, Scott Toth, ND4L

June Engineering Report

Field day is right around the corner. Please come out and join us to help make this year a success! Every Field Day presents new challenges and learning opportunities. This often presents opportunities for experimentation to improve our station setup, increase our contact rates under varying band conditions, or just to make things interesting! If you are a newer member, or just haven't had an opportunity to attend the club meetings, I encourage you to come out and meet other members and area hams. I look forward to seeing you there.

Matt Trull, KX4GG

VE Testing

Every month on the second Saturday, except in March when it is the third Saturday, W4VEC holds a testing session for those who live in the area. This provides an opportunity for individuals to be able to test for their amateur radio license or upgrade. Thanks to David Macchiarolo, AJ4TF, and his team of volunteer examiners for taking time out of their busy schedules each month to help new or upgraded hams in our area.

Next month's testing session will be on July 14th at Hinshaw United Methodist Church, 4501 Gate City Blvd., Greensboro, 27407, at 9am. While walk-ins are welcome contacting the lead VE is preferred. Please contact David Macchiarolo, AJ4TF, email aj4tf@ arrl.net, phone (cell), 336-420-9424.

New location for High Point VE testing: Hickory Chapel Wesleyan Church, 301 Hickory Chapel Road (off MLK Jr. Drive), High Point NC 27262. Pre-registration is required. Contact David Macchiarolo, AJ4TF, 336-420-9424 at least two days prior to the session. David's email: aj4tf@arrl.net.
